

DRAFT - The Case for Men's Discipleship: A Nation in Crisis
Table of Contents

Why men need relational discipleship in every church in America.

1. Introduction: Why this case must be made
2. The Problem and Opportunity – What difference does it make when men fail? What difference does it make when men succeed? How does it change a church?
3. The Heart of the Matter
  - a. Research – biological issues / evidence
  - b. Research – neurological issues / evidence
  - c. Research – anthropological issues / evidence
  - d. Research – sociological issues / evidence
  - e. Research – misc.
4. The Nature of the Struggle Men Must Fight – Men are engaged in a struggle against cultural definitions of manhood, the world, the flesh, and the devil
5. A Theology of Masculinity
6. Men in Relationship
  - a. Marriage
  - b. Fathers/grandfathers/mentors
  - c. Friends/Relationships/male love
7. Adolescence – Growing New Men
  - a. Research
  - b. Rites of Passage
  - c. Extended adolescence and its ramifications
8. Men in the Church
  - a. The Church/Band of Brothers
  - b. Pastors
9. The Future – Three Paths –
  - a. Stay the Course, but show where we will end up
  - b. Unsustainable models – ineffective ways to attempt disciple making
  - c. Sustainable disciple building – discipleship and relationships
10. Solutions – How We Can Act Now
  - a. Models that work
  - b. Stories from the front line

Appendix - Resources

Bibliography: Additional Reading

The final strategy will include formatting this information in ways to make it easy for an army of advocates to distribute it through their centers of influence. It may be packaged as a book or website, or in additional formats.